

Job: Mythbusting Reality

10: Mythbusting Repentance

Job chapters 22 to 24 ♦ Jodie McNeill

A spectacular backflip

A recap of Job

Eliphaz says that Job needs to repent (chapter 22)

- It's a horrible feeling to be falsely _____.
- God knows _____, and he will judge _____.
- It's wrong to become a Christian just because you'll get _____ things.

Job shows why he doesn't need to repent (chapter 23)

- Job's deepest longing is to be found _____ before God.
- Do you love God's _____ more than food?

Job describes those who do need to repent (chapter 24)

- We see a picture of _____ evil.
- Their judgement day is _____ and their punishment is _____.

A necessary backflip

- True Christians need to keep saying _____.

Next Week...

Jodie speaks on 'Mythbusting Religion' from Job chapters 25 and 26