

Job: Mythbusting Reality

13: Mythbusting Dignity

Job chapters 29 to 31 ♦ Jodie McNeill

Our desire for dignity

1. Job reflects on his past dignity (chapter 29)

- Job longs for God's _____ not his material blessings
- Job longs for the _____ he once commanded
- Job longed for the _____ of his earlier days

2. Job laments his fall from dignity (chapter 30)

- Job describes those who _____ his indignity
- Job outlines the _____ of their mockery

- Job describes God's _____ on him

- Job feels that God has _____ him

- Job recognises his suffering is _____

3. Job speaks of why he is worthy of dignity (chapter 31)

- Job affirms his desire to keep _____ to God

- Job lists ten _____ in which he has been faithful

- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5
- 6
- 7
- 8
- 9
- 10

- Job ends with a cry for _____

Jesus lost his dignity to give us ours

Next Week...

Jodie speaks on 'Mythbusting Revelation' from Job chapters 32 to 34